The Rhode Island State Police this week launched Text-to-911, an enhanced system for dispatch centers that will allow people to send a text message to reach the state's E-911 communications center if they can't make a telephone call.

"Text-to-911 is an important and potentially lifesaving service, especially for anyone in a situation where they cannot talk safely on the phone or cannot physically call 911 for help," said Lt. Col. Kevin M. Barry, acting su state poli as a valu and hard it provid conveni emergenc
