

Town of East Greenwich, Rhode Island

PROCLAMATION

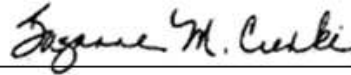

- WHEREAS, Lucy Amat was born in New Bedford, MA and raised in Providence, RI. She attended Central High School where she nurtured her adventurous spirit by playing Roller Derby until her mother made her quit because it was considered too dangerous; and
- WHEREAS, Lucy Amat joined the United States Army in September 1944 at the age of 20 and was sent to basic training in Oglethorpe, GA. She was trained as a Military Police officer and worked at the Boston Port of Embarkation guarding the base and the POW's; and
- WHEREAS, Lucy Amat separated from the service after World War II and entered the United States Army Reserve; and
- WHEREAS, Lucy Amat worked as a hairdresser, a grease monkey, attended airline stewardess school and worked for National Chain before retiring in 1984. She also worked for General Electric; and
- WHEREAS, Lucy Amat joined the American Legion and has been the Chaplain for Post 15 in East Greenwich since 1991. She offers prayers and condolences at funerals, comforts the sick and educates school children about flag etiquette and patriotism; and
- WHEREAS, Lucy Amat has five children: Priscilla, Laurie, Jeff, Billy and Danny.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Town Council of the Town of East Greenwich hereby proclaims November 11th, 2017 as

LUCY AMAT DAY

And, BE IT FURTHER PROCLAIMED that the Town Council recognizes that her honorable, energetic and compassionate conduct has conferred distinction on the Town of East Greenwich for all past, present and future generations.

Attest the seal of the Town Council of the Town of East Greenwich this 11th day of November, A.D. 2017.

Suzanne McGee Cienki, President

Sean M. Todd, Vice President

Andrew F. Deutsch, Councilor

Nino M. Granatiero, Councilor

Mark Schwager, Councilor